Item 4.01. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On November 14, 2004, Fair Isaac Corporation (the "Company") dismissed KPMG LLP ("KPMG") as the Company's independent accountants and appointed Deloitte & Touche LLP ("Deloitte & Touche") as the Company's new independent accountants. The Company's Audit Committee approved the dismissal of KPMG and the engagement of Deloitte & Touche as the Company's independent accountants at its meeting on November 14, 2004. KPMG will continue as the Company's independent accountants through the completion of its audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended September 30, 2004, and the issuance of their audit report thereon. This action effectively dismissed KPMG as the Company's independent accountants for the fiscal year that commenced on October 1, 2004.

The reports of KPMG on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2003 and 2002, did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles, except that 1) the report on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003, made reference to the Company's change in its method of accounting for goodwill and 2) the report on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2002, made reference to the Company's change in its method of accounting for business combinations and goodwill.

In connection with its audits of the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2003 and 2002, there were no disagreements with KPMG on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of KPMG, would have caused it to make reference thereto in its reports on the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2003 and 2002.

For the fiscal year ended September 30, 2004 and through the date of this Form 8-K, there have been no disagreements with KPMG on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure.

None of the reportable events described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K occurred during the fiscal years ended September 30, 2003 and September 30, 2002, and through the date of this Form 8-K.

During the fiscal years ended September 30, 2003 and September 30, 2002, and through the date of this Form 8-K, the Company did not consult with Deloitte & Touche regarding any of the matters or events set forth in Item 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of Regulation S-K.

The Company has provided a copy of the above disclosures to KPMG. Attached as Exhibit 16.1 is a copy of KPMG's letter dated November 17, 2004.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We are currently principal accountants for Fair Isaac Corporation (the "Company") and, under the date of October 31, 2003, we reported on the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the years ended September 30, 2003 and 2002. On November 15, 2004, we were notified that the Company engaged Deloitte & Touche LLP as its principal accountants for the year ending September 30, 2005, and that the auditor-client relationship with KPMG LLP will cease upon completion of the audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended September 30, 2004, and the issuance of our report thereon. We have read the Company's statements included under Item 4.01 of its Form 8-K dated November 14, 2004, and we agree with such statements, except that we are not in a position to agree or disagree with the Company's statement that the change was approved by the Audit Committee at its meeting on November 14, 2004, or the Company's statement that Deloitte & Touche LLP was not consulted regarding any of the matters or events set forth in Item 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of Regulation S-K.

Very truly yours,

/s/ KPMG LLP
